

As an Airline Employee/Administrator, I'm against lifting the ban.
As it is, most people don't listen or follow simple directions or instructions due to multiple distractions, one of the big ones being the use of cell phone without regards for others around.